PROCEDURE AND SUBMISSION DATE

New students may apply for one of the grants and financial assistance packages under the “Grants and Financial assistance for Study Plan” when they go through the admission process at ESIC Business & Marketing School. Candidates who are interested in applying for any of the plan’s grants should apply to the Business School Admissions Dept. to obtain the relevant application form. Once completed, the form must be submitted, along with the corresponding documentation, either personally or by email, to the department of Business School Admissions.

► General Regulations on the Grant and Financial Assistance:

- New students may apply for only one of the grants under the plan. Grants are not accumulative; The most advantageous grant possible will be applied to each individual student. These grants are compatible with grants from the Ministry, in the case of these university master’s degrees.
- When requested, the grant application form must be submitted to the Admissions Dept. of the Business School, depending on the particular type of grant.
- The grant application form must always be signed by the new student in the corresponding sections of the form, otherwise the document cannot be processed.
- Each grant has a different closing date for submission, so new students must pay particular attention to the dates stipulated in the descriptions (no grant application will be accepted outside these closing dates).
- The decision to award the grant will be communicated by ESIC individually, and on the dates set out in the descriptions of each of the grants. The decision of the Admission Committee is final.
- ESIC Business & Marketing School has a limited fund for grants and financial assistance for study. Rights are reserved, as regards adjudication of the number of these grants.
- The percentage of grant awarded, according to the type, will be applied to the cost of the tuition and not to the official fees or enrolment.

If you have any questions about the procedure, the documentation to provide, or the type of grant to apply for, do not hesitate to contact the Admissions Department.

*Consult the Admissions department of the Business School on the Financial Assistance for Study Plan.
